Hi Dana!

Mikes asleep right now but...real quick to start with...

The big initial Karen and Jeffrey's histories articles I did - there's two ways I can show you them. This blog post (documenting that the church stole my research to make their Barnum and Bailey previous "attack" pages look better but with a twist)

<https://mikemcclaughry.wordpress.com/2023/05/07/church-of-scientology-misappropriates-and-misrepresents-virginia-mcclaughry-research-1/>

It gives you hyperlinks to both the original blog links of the Karen and Jeff articles as well as to the internet archives of them.

If you prefer the originals here at the blog I can take them back out of "draft" status and put passwords on them or you can just use the provided internet archives ones.

Let me know.

Time for me to go nite-nite...

Love ❤️ to both you and Tony for your show last night.

Hey y'all! I'm heading home today from seeing Tony - don't want the world knowing that, but I wanna get to my laptop because I have a folder that's much more organized so I can archive what you've sent, then compare so I can break down what I'm looking for.

Something on the periphery here, but it is the crux of what started this: do you know anything if Vanessa LaRose's parents? She's the first person who came at me & I believe Karen & Jeff are grooming her for some sort of authority position. I've said this on air that it's simply my "conspiracy" but I know these folks usually have deep familial ties within the church. If not, no worries, figured it was worth a shot! 🌹❤️🙏 Morning!

You're more familiar with financials than me I suspect, so when you have a chance could you look at this re Karen?

<https://mikemcclaughry.wordpress.com/2023/05/11/church-of-scientology-misappropriates-and-misrepresents-virginia-mcclaughry-research-3-why-did-the-church-not-try-to-prosecute-karen-de-la-carriere-for-possible-bank-fraud>

Because that court record sure seems to show mortgage fraud to me.

If you agree it's sus, I want to know the new deed of trust data for that refi, what loan company bank/etc. and those are public records.

If you are still in LA I was wondering if you might pull a document from the county clerk?

Note -

In the mid-1990s I took down an Mkultra psychiatrist who murdered my mother basically, long story, she was an ICU and drug dependency/anorexia nurse in [REDACTED], he was mixed up with the infamous [REDACTED] State hospital, so I am familiar with CA medical laws I researched myself but financial law is an even bigger ratnest to navigate in some ways. So yeah, any help to see if I am on base or not with Karen and loan fraud would be much appreciated.

Hi,

In case Tony doesn't know yet Marisa started doing attack videos on Tony again, looked to be roughly timed as related to your stream last night.

They came up when I searched for his channel on YouTube which is my newbie way of going to it on this dang cell phone.

Give me a laptop and it's a while different thing. Me and these things? Argh.

Replying to 1 for now so you aren't bombarded with emails! Not bothering me one bit. I can only pretend to understand how delicate the situation is for you so whatever you feel comfortable sharing, or discussing, I'm here for it.

Marisa is off her rocker, and I try my best not to speak ill of others. She ran a thing about him being someone else & now she's doing this again. I don't know if Tony has seen it, but he will probably be upset. She was on Doug's show trashed and couldn't get through the interview.

She told me about Attack & Nora going to ICSA so she's not dumb by any means but, I don't trust her. I don't trust anyone.

As far as Vanessa, she never mentions her parents names. Hence my red flag radar going off. She's too comfortable with Karen & Jeff, and she's the one that came at me about ritual abuse against children. Now that I've read some of Augustine's writings, I KNOW there's something wrong.

I find it very disturbing that Augustine too does mental gymnastics to discredit Hubbard's ties to intelligence. I hadn't watched your videos on him until yesterday & now it makes sense why he's made some veiled, passive comments to Tony & I in livestreams. What a mess. 🤔 🌸 ❤️

Hey there

I was reading Mike the current Twitter exchanges between Nora desperately trying to recruit you, he said: if she no longer believes in Scientology, than what is she doing attacking us?

Succinct.

Agreed re Marisa. She acts very weird, like she's stine or drunk or something in the videos of late yesterday.

Ok so Vanessa larose, is that her real last name? Do you have an ancestry.ci works membership level? Great for tracking down parents, marriage divorce dates etc. I had to cancel that membership and my beloved newspaper.com membership when they went into stripping us of assets and support mode.

I need to know if larose is the right last name.

The marcabians said so! :-/

Lol.

Oh Nora, Nora do you have any idea what you revealed in that very first comment to Dana...yikes. it's JUSTIFIED to not reach out to us?

Permanently.

My God, the evil behind her.

Thanks so much for shooting an email to me in the midst of all the freaking out mess they're doing today.

No, thank you for the heads up on Marisa. It's easy (IMO) to go after men in such a manner. Vanessa tried to imply sexual criminality against Tony instead of refuting my argument about ritual abuse. A real classy bunch.

I have a newspapers account, I shall search there. From what I can tell, it IS her real name because she posted her credentials from her college graduation. She just talks about how "die hard" her parents are, however, she claims to have studied psychology WHILE still in the church. I don't see how that would fly. She also partied while in the church. Again, does not compute.

Nora thinks she can intimidate me and I think it's hilarious that NOW, now that I've read some unfavorable truths & also exposed the financials on SPTV's end, now they wanna make demands of me.

You are welcome. You're right about what Marisa is doing. Interesting.

Re larose ok. Next time I can fire up my laptop I will see if I have anything in my records. You are correct, her studying psychology and partying would not go over well with the Church generally unless either 1. She's lying about some or all of ut or 2. She's being groomed to have a "cover" to do exactly what she's doing now. I have seen Karen and Jeff "host", like a patron, or groom people. Chris Shelton being one of them as well as Steve Hassan. Part of how she controls them is the threat of ripping all support from them. Aka blackballing and not promoting or "mentioning" them anymore and worse should they dare to expose the perfidious nature underlying it all.

Can't wait to see what you are going to expose re Anton and Aquino

Re satanic panic, did you see this mess Ortega wrote back in 2011?

I proved the model Janjich uses (from Singer) as well as Hassan's was thrown out by the APA as well. Hassan has lied about his "deprogramming" past. Karen is like this massive puppet master of the entire ex-community and anti-cult community. Dang. I had this weird feeling about her and Jeff. Such a weird bad feeling.

Hiya,

Can you tell me what your understanding of the terms ritual abuse and satanic ritual abuse is?

Over the years I have attempted to clarify this but pretty consistently have run into what I consider unacceptable descriptions or outright propaganda.

I have always been aware of the extra dark behaviors that are engaged in behind the scenes but never ran into anyone who "gets it" as to how deep evil goes.

So, from both victims (mostly those victims of government abuse/programming) & whistleblowers writings, as I understand it, RA/SRA is physical, sexual and psychological abuse. Its purpose ultimately is to condition the victim, to pain, to obedience, and to help create multiple personality disorder or dissociative identity disorder. When the victim is young (usually when it starts), the mind "splits" or creates a wall around the trauma to allow the victim to "escape". Our brains are truly beautiful. It's a protective mechanism and has been proven again and again in MRI scans. So for children who are being abused in this way, the repeated abuse means repeated splitting - the abuser knows this, and can basically create as many personalities or "alters" (alternate personalities) as they want.

I think all child abuse is satanic because it's a violation of an innocent person. However, specific SRA involves the abuser harming the child while reciting invocations, blood of any type, cannibalism (unfortunately), sacrifices, the like. It all sounds completely insane but I've heard these things personally so many times and I've seen witness statements and I've seen medical records so I know it's true.

Because I know people are wicked.

Ortega himself has written about the "satanic panic" and Vanessa said I was a dangerous person for talking about such things. I think she, Augustine and Karen are dangerous & I have a bad feeling about this kind of stuff related to them.

Okay, Tony asked: Do we know if Remini's parents were OSA?

He also is wondering about Aaron Smith-Levin's parents, really any of the SPTV folks.

Marisa had actually told Tony of Chris Shelton's involvement in child neglect orders resulting in her nephew (I believe) being killed in a house fire because Shelton had ordered the mother to work without a babysitter.

Another question - because you guys seem to understand where I'm coming from, in viewing the intel side of this that Augustine is so insistent to deny: it almost seems like all of these Aftermath/SPTV folks are "second gen" OSA children. OSA parents, Sea Org kids. Does that make sense? Kind of like, 2nd gen. spooks lol. Sorry I hope that makes sense and I'm sorry to bombard you with so many questions! No more questions today because you two should be preparing to enjoy Mikes birthday tomorrow! 🌹

This is helpful thank you Dana!

I have questions and "thinkings", I will insert below to make it easier

On 2023-09-03 6:49 am, Dana Whitmire wrote:

*So they are trying to enforce an artificial identity to be created by the person, under control of the handler, probably by triggers and such, with the "real" person submerged. Do I have that right?

When the victim is young (usually when it starts), the mind "splits" or creates a wall around the trauma to allow the victim to "escape". Our brains are truly beautiful. It's a protective mechanism and has been proven again and again in MRI scans.

What, exactly, do the MRI scans show?

So for children who are being abused in this way, the repeated abuse means repeated splitting - the abuser knows this, and can basically create as many personalities or "alters" (alternate personalities) as they want.

*Hmmm. I call them "masks" and although I don't hand over all creation of those to the abuser, my view is it's a spiritual creation manifesting in the physical, I also do not relieve those that enforce these "masks" into place of enforcing a person into having to obey just to survive. Personally, I think this whole society is enforcing the use of masks but what you are describing sounds more specific purposes driven and then with their sick experiments against those they think can't fight back, and a power trip as well.

| I think all child abuse is satanic because it's a violation of an innocent person.

*Can you clarify? I didn't know of this relationship between Satan/satanic and innocence. That's very interesting to me.

However, specific SRA involves the abuser harming the child while reciting invocations, blood of any type, cannibalism (unfortunately), sacrifices, the like.

Like eyes wide shut movie, in a way. So, this sounds like the abusers are deliberately bringing in a beyond surreal "religious" aspect to overwhelm the senses, activate traumatic genetic memory of real religious tortures, the Inquisition etc, to load the deck, so to speak, and make the real identity not want to be there, escape etc. Hence the use of this evil so-called Satanic ritualism "window dressing" on children.

The problem for me has been, I have a good nose for truth vs lies and there is definitely a highly controlled opposition going on in this area. Faked records, fake stories etc. Which I imagine is the setup for the spike of the False Memory foundation. It's exactly what Karen's role is as "ex" Scientology. We are the tagged with false memory equivalent.

If they have the need for a controlled opposition, something very damning and real and dangerous to them to be EFFECTIVELY exposed is out there.

I haven't run into any credible aka true stories out there in easy searches, which doesn't mean I don't think there are any. It simply told me that someone is going to some trouble to load the deck with a bunch of what I consider false or questionable stories to divert from the real ones.

It all sounds completely insane but I've heard these things personally so many times and I've seen witness statements and I've seen medical records so I know it's true. Because I know people are wicked.

*Yep

| Ortega himself has written about the "satanic panic"

* yes. I sent you the link to that in the other email.

*Dangerous? She said dangerous? Oh fer fucksakes. Wow.

I think she, Augustine and Karen are dangerous & I have a bad feeling about this kind of stuff related to them.

*So do I and have for some time.

| Okay, Tony asked: Do we know if Remini's parents were OSA?

*There are two kinds of OSA.

There are those actually posted in a named position, like Mike was, then there are the agents or assets of varying degrees.

Some agents become handlers also, recruiting from rank-and-file scientologists.

Like Jeffrey K. Marino who even used false names around the Guardian Office, and Merrill Vanniere, his recruit for black operations in Clearwater

This is further complicated by some of these guys are actually cua or FBI POSING as "scientologists" in the Guardian Office, like Jimmy Mulligan, Mary Sue Hubbard's right hand man.

I doubt Reminis parents were posted in OSA, but that doesn't rule out being asked to do things for OSA.

You saw how Leah was shilling to the press about the church even as a young child right? Well see that's actually an OSA function it's called the PR branch and it's likely that she's been asked to do something for the intelligence branch.

| He also is wondering about Aaron Smith-Levin's parents, really any of the SPTV folks.

I get it. We very carefully kept our children OUT of the church proper and I knew how to effectively scare them off/block them from recruiting them into the Sea Org.

Think of Karen like a "volunteer" handler (which is really about creating deniability) who looks for people to recruit for two or three main purposes.

You know what, this is going to take me too long to type on this stupidly small keyboard on my phone so I wouldn't mind if you called me if that's you know okay with you and you might be able to talk to Mike just bear in mind that you know he has severe breathing difficulty so it might be sometimes difficult to hear him when he's breathing heavily.

Do not give this out.

Just came across this which looks to be a veiled accusation of you and Tony

<https://exscn2.net/threads/how-scientology%E2%80%99s-intelligence-operations-work.7577/>

His take on intelligence operations is an insult on anyone's intelligence, as per usual.

I often feel bad for this guy, he's been groomed by Karen and Jeff for years and it's just so sad to watch him behave in the same clueless fashion as he did in the Sea Org.

(I was in the Sea Org for 4 1/2 years, age 16 to 20. I went because my dad was hooked and led by the nose by a devil woman and I knew I better go investigate, from the inside, and run interference for him as best I could, that's one reason.

I don't want to be a bother or distract you from anything, so let me know if I am emailing too often. I have been watching these people for years and I thought you may not know if some of their controlled gangouts - which by the way that sick account trying to prove to you why you shouldn't associate with us by using writings from 20 plus years ago, this forum is where someone reposted the same thing you just got sent on Twitter, to portray us as "crazy". It was timed, I believe, just after I discovered you and Tony and told Mike about you

I'm sure it's just a coincidence. (Sarcasm on)

One of the standout things I noticed about you two is you are no dummies to these kind of operators strategies, and you weren't FAKE about it either.

If you want to know anything, anything at all, about our histories, we have nothing to hide and will answer as best we can.

The simple answer for what we were doing when we first left the church? Strategy. We were speaking TO Scientologists in ways they understand, and ways the Churches handlers never thought possible and we got thousands of people out of the church, especially "high" auditing levels ones, towards the end of that strategic phase we began introducing Scientologists to hubbards intergalactic socalled views, and started focusing on the larger intelligence picture and that drew out the obvious "independent Scientology" operatives and we expised them as such and then "disappeared".

When Mike Rinder Karen etc first came out of the church, supposedly, whose moves and tactics did they emulate (because we had "disappeared" and ended our first strategy) ? Yep. Mike and I 's moves, even down to Leah Remini even citing in writing that finding out about the six month check we had exposed, without naming us.

Ask me sometime what happened when an assoc producer, a non scientologist, was so excited to approach Mike to be on the show after watching the video you highlighted last night.

That other link the sock twittered you today? That's Bernd Luebeck, one of the church's "catch" Scientology outside the church, rons org. He is former Go Intelligence and stole Mikes time track and it is still lied about even up to today. I documented and proved all that.

Last, and I am sorry 🙄 for having to bring this to your attention, but that Imagination podcast! Hosted the guy, Scott Gordon, who tried to kill Mike and I, as a "whistleblower".

Scott has never stopped his OSA job, and I suspect he has Russian and American intelligence history, which as you do, if we can get out of cars and motels mode, I will present my "pieces" to support my theory.

When you get back to Jolly I found an old old publication by him about his time in haight asbury for you.

I also dug into Aquino background (documents)a bit that I'd like to discuss.

Finally, in one of your streams you discussed briefly that they don't think Leah is a real threat and the idea of what they do when they do. So percipient if you, I have said for years that if Leah, Karen, etc were REAL whistleblowers they'd have had done to them what we have, these people and their handlers don't fuck around when they mean business, they'd break those two in nothing flat, strip them of everything.

So why haven't they?

Exactly.

Sorry this is so long but I strongly felt I should lay some things out here, just in case. I never know what the day will bring, good or bad, things are moving so fast lately.

Love to you, I thank God or the universe or however you think of it, for you being you.

Granted, I only looked real quick but I couldn't easily find what he's talking about.

Mike wanted to see it.

SO much fun talking to you, you and your "beautiful mind" (loved that meme you did) are beyond amazing. Such a relief for me too, if that makes sense. It's been a little on the lonely side out here trying to find the truth and bring it to others, as I know you understand.

I know you will understand when I say that every minute of being at Scott's death camp house was worth it to find Loren, someone who SEES.

And now there's you. I'm gonna cry again and I'm not a crier but I have such powerful emotions about all this that my poor little body just can't contain them.

Let's just say I am always humbled by the magnificence and beauty of true heart and spirit IN ACTION.

We're in [REDACTED]

I'm awake now. I'm normally drinking coffee and waking up at around 10 1030am lately because I keep being so interested in the streams and such I've been nightowling it. Lol Aww, I'm so glad Tony gets what this means to us, thank you so much for sharing that and that was so kind the forwarded vet aid. We're a bit far from [REDACTED] at the moment but hey. You never know. I'm hanging on to that just in case.

I'm so happy to have in any way helped you know you are on the path of the truth. However ugly, weird, insane or not. As we say, it is what IS. Not what people wish it was "say" it is or anything else.

No it is not weird at all and though I don't comprehend the hell you guys have been through, I too am quite emotional because I knew something was deeply wrong here. You have helped me feel not so "crazy". I knew I was heading towards the truth no matter how unpopular it might be, and I am truly thankful (as is Tony) to communicate with you guys and have a glance into what standing up for truth takes. Tony got very emotional earlier when I called and told him what you said about Mike enjoying his streams. He's a big softie but it meant a lot to him.

I am on east coast time so it's almost my bed time - I assume you are [REDACTED]? Don't need to be specific for safety reasons that is absolutely okay. I'd like to call you tomorrow (not too early), maybe have a phone coffee chat! Also one of Tony's members I trust (as does he) asked me to send you this.

This is a church of Scientology document where the the process Church and it's founders get "declared" sp or bad basically.

Notice the date of 1970. I believe this is a PR maneuver and a deniability shield for rank and file scientologists, but it could also be a bit of a slap in case there was something going on where somebody wasn't towing the line of Hubbard the way he wanted them to that's an additional possibility as well.

Subject: gofund me update draft

Date: 2023-09-07 3:05 pm

From: loren spethman <[REDACTED]>

To: Virginia & Mike McClaughry <vmcc@[REDACTED]>

The prospect of Mike and Virginia to get out of their cars and into a home is hopefully eminent. They have had their worldly possessions stored in their cars since leaving, better worded ... being kicked out by Scott, Pueblo, Colorado after being told that Scott would understand if someone thought they were "criminal squatters".

Those that have supported them over this very dark part of their life have been noted and I can say ... appreciated beyond words that I can print here to help a couple that have helped so many without asking for any financial return for their help. Those that have ... like I say have not done so with deepest feelings of ... {maybe there is still something here to salvage when injustices are supported and justice is attacked as insane, mentally ill, etc. etc.}.

I started this gofundme when I did, not because I wouldn't have done so earlier had it okay with Mike and Virginia to do so, but it has been my pleasure to see not just the money which was so desperately needed at the time, but the heart that those who recognize that Mike and Virginia have done what they did not for financial gain or even fame or any other worldly benefit, but for helping others in a "fight" that even those that claim they are victims of evil are attacking Mike and Virginia as if they are somehow going to "spoil their game vanquishing evil". It isn't all about an evil organization that "fair games" those that say NO to them. Yes that is a part of it. But the problem is much deeper and much simpler ... will people treat people as people and not as subhumans or lesser insane beings or any other demonizing label that another may place on someone else to make them look not worthy of support.

I am putting this here because hopefully soon this exact gofundme will not be needed. I do appreciate and thank all of you that have made it easier for me to help support and keep Mike and Virginia from "succumbing" to the to whatever degree it is of a demonstratable complex and continual attack that others openly and in shadow are attempting to harm these two individuals because they simply said "NO" to the request to support others they are participating in a systematic harming of others.

Yes it may be seen as if I am stealing the limelight here in this update, but since it is my gofundmet I feel it appropriate to address my view on why I am helping Mike and Virginia when others are trying to stop me from doing so. I will close it when additional help are no longer needed as to getting them out of their cars and into a home. So far there is 36 instances here of giving to assist them in not be killed from exposure. Everyone of these acts has my willingness to help those who gave them in good faith, if and/or when any of you get anywhere near this kind of situation... let me know.

As for those that have told me and other that Mike and Virginia deserved to die from exposure ... there are other fates reserved for that kind of disregard for others health and safety.

If you helped in any way, even if it was not financial, you know who you are, I wish to thank those even if I don't know whom you are necessarily. Prayers and blessings and other intent to make things better would very much be a part of that assistance. Hopefully there will be only one more update and that hopefully will be that Mike and Virginia are in a home and can move out of their cars. Until then, thanks everyone for participating in my attempt to buy time so they can get out of their cars and into a home. <3

Hi Loren! Thank you for letting me read this draft. I think you have a very thoughtful way of expressing yourself - it speaks to your character that you remain calm & kind when it's very easy not to.

The only part I might consider removing would be "hopefully this exact GoFundMe might not be needed". The only reason I state this, well, there's 2. One, I want people to continue to donate regardless.

It frustrates me to no end seeing people get double or triple this goal in one sitting when I know that even chunks here and there for Mike & Virginia meant life or death, and outside of that, they could use it for other things they might want or need. I understand "wants" aren't the top priority when it's such a dire situation, but, a little extra to ease their minds is the least people could do.

Number 2 is from my "devil's advocate" side, that God forbid, no one can use this hopeful & happy truth you're sharing, against you all (whether in a forum, YouTube, Facebook, etc.). From what I understand, these people will use any and every little thing to discredit others from viewing Mike & Virginia as human beings.

I could be over-thinking it and I understand I am here as a new face so this is merely my thoughts and I trust your judgement in what you decide to post, I'm here to observe, learn, listen and help.

From what I have been told, you have kept these 2 alive - truly a once in a lifetime friend & a blessing from God. The more I learn of what's happened over the years, the angrier I get...but I also see love and friendship and the good parts of humanity like yourself, and I believe there's something bigger than all of us at play here.

I wouldn't mind the wind being taken out of some peoples' sails to know that people do care, that things are looking up, and that the truth will prevail no matter how hard anyone tries, because I do believe the countless injustices Mike & Virginia have suffered will be brought out of the darkness and into the light, and so will the truth. Truth is the only thing that stands the test of time.

We all need a "Loren" - Dana

by leaving it active that communicates that this exact gofundme is needed. I for one has zero issues with people donating to support M+V. There were exact reason for this gofundme and when that "reason" is completed, my idea is another gofundme for them is more correct than keeping one that is for a specific purpose. Another purpose, another gofundme. Having said that, I think I get why you don't want this gofundme to become silent or invisible. I get you want this part of the "story" to remain real for a need is real even if the exact need that the gofundme was created has been "handled". I am not adverse to rubbing people faces in the truth if that is appropriate for the situation. I am open to suggestions as to how to make the story "on going" without break instead of a discrete times of "desparation". I didn't create this gofundme to promote any further truth than if M+V don't have some help ... they won't be around to help in the future. The transition to another purpose was more difficult for me to envision than the ending one and starting another. I get the want to not allow the story to fade into memory for the few that had ever seen it. I am not worried about what other say, I am considering my own purpose for gofundme ... get them to a stable safe home. We don't know if the place will meet those needs yet, and hence delaying until that is accomplished wouldn't be off purpose. I am not sure how to move on without losing some of the initial ... "immediate" and "life or death" situation. As keeping a record alive and encouraging other to help in whatever way they feel most purposeful for them ... makes sense, however, I never intended to deny that opportunity. I just was considering a different gofundme that doesn't necessarily lead with the past.

Hi Loren! I'm sorry if I came across as anything nitpicky at all - your purpose and passion is ever-present in the GoFundMe as it is. You have been their rock and you all are very fortunate to have each other, and I believe in people trusting their instincts. I do agree once they are in safe housing, a new sort of "celebratory" GoFundMe is in order - not as a party, but as a "they made it", and now let's help make sure they are not without, and, quite frankly, a little pocket cash for them to spend on themselves or for whatever they see fit is past due.

I see you 3 standing against this complete avalanche of wicked and surviving and I do believe this is the most important thing - I completely support going with your gut in what you write as an update. I want these people to see that no matter what's been done, they're here, and you're a living example of standing along side someone for truth and justice, despite the discomfort and unknown danger. People need to see actual truth will survive, not this shoddy parade being touted as a win in the latest celebrity circus to avert eyes from the actual crimes being covered up now.

You're a special person and a special friend. Just grateful to know you all and be inspired by you all. 🌹❤️🙏

Hey Dana,

Apology not necessary for there is no reason to apologise, You have done nothing worthy of an "I'm sorry" that I am aware. I put across my points not to make less of anyone else's. I believe if you want to contribute, you should know what you are contributing to. I am leaving the gofundme as is for now and I am not going to update it immediately. I will soon enough when the results/consequences have been realized as to what is in play right now. The reason I was going to update it prior was for reasons that you probably have no awareness of. It is truly a communication to a few of those already that have donated and would receive the communication directly. For those of good faith, that should be a positive validation. For those not so good of faith, which all are not as they seem. Yes, they all gave money, but not had so good of intention in that they are pretending at best and are doing it for the intel of being first contacted for any change or progress or lack thereof in the gofundme. A way to monitor the situation that they contributed to putting M+V in the position in the first place. I don't expect you or truly hardly anyone to grasp all the nuances involved, but I paused with the update because of Mike said that is preference that I not post it right now. Things will change between now and time I post and I will do my best to keep you in the loop, for one ... I think you deserve to know, but you have earned it so far. Don't think I personally am cutting across what you want to have as a receipt of what went on when those like Nora are conspiring to literally kill M+V by stopping support. We are just starting in interaction and I don't want to proceed with the notion that you have butted in or interfered where you shouldn't have ... at all. I can't give it all at once. Have to start somewhere and go somewhere else.

I am not going easy on the communication, so in a sense it is an opportunity to buckly up for I wish I was optimistic as enjoy your communications to be. There are things to be optimistic about ... not arguing that point. It is just that what is going on is ... out gradient even for those that one would hope it wouldn't be out gradient. I do recognize the "I am sorry" as if you are not sure you came across properly in all aspects. Don't worry about that. Do what you do and you won't have anything to worry about from me.

I will accept your input into the gofundme, for in the past 3 months, you personally are responsible for all activity and that activity is in the true purpose underlying the gofundme in the first place. So don't sell yourself short. I try not to be that subtle and require guessing about what I am doing. As overt/open as possible without compromising others position in what they are doing. If you will be a voice for the otherwise voiceless, like children and elderly ... I won't walk away, for that matter to me as well. If you have read much of my facebook posts about Scientology subject matter, you will see that I have promised to tell my story in full, or as close to that as I can. That time hasn't come yet, however I can tell it is nearing. I don't have all the receipts for evidence or proof, but my story isn't without importance and even some of it would qualify as entertaining to those with a particular sense of humor. I found the forwarding of all memory that come of as false as voice by Doug Kramer (if I remember his name correctly) as disingenuous. I believe he said that more to create an impression than he thinks it true. I have been asked many times to tell my story and Doug has never asked me, but I wouldn't accept if he did. He has something going on that isn't what he show to the public.

In auditing, my memories in auditing went back to before this lifetime and some of the data was new to me at the time but has been proven out later, sometime without me doing anything to try to prove it out. I don't have the usual story and I was in what I experimental aspect of the subject. I have run into aspect of my prior to Scientology when I was participated in what is now called or catagorized as "Mkultra" stuff. That was my setup to enter Scientology, so I have a totally different take one why it exists in the first place than virtually everyone that also claims to be part of the formative years of Dianetics and Scientology. Without receipts, it is a story, but I have discovered receipts of what I rememeber on occasion and testamony by past experiences of many alive today. I realized that I met someone that had quite inimate relationship prior to this life that was still alive and in Scientology. At the time I had difficulty with the amount of admiration and the depth of the connection, but interesting story it is for those who wish to get away from the politics and financial area of the subject. I have been declared publicly suppressive before this lifea and declared this life ... no receipts, but when take you off their mailling list ... you know it without question, they don't remove you from mailing lists just because you asked to be removed.

We will get to the gofundme subject soon enough and I told Virginia that I would consider your input prior to my making major anything concerning it.

If you have specific questions, email is best for me in that it is writing and both can go back and see what was said in the interchange. A time on phone may arise, but I don't see anything now that benefits by doing so.

██████ passed away at the end of ██████ and we are still attempting to deal with that on all the levels that ██████ passing created. I haven't had a consistent job/employment since the pandemic so my personal funding is ... not strong as it would have been if the pandemic hadn't occurred, but that isn't my highest priority or area that I am working on right now. Scientology isn't high on my priority list either. If it assist you to help others, that would be higher on my list than most of what people consider worth doing. You chose and you are to some degree chosen in way I can't discribe to you ... but can feel it. You decided to take the journey, and to a degree we are in the same boat, or could be said we are on the same planet, and something has to be done differently that what has been done in the past to prevent what many expect is going to happen (diaster on a large scale) and on the other hand the optomistic creating future free of the injustices and evils that parade themselves as superior to all. I am trying to engage in the optimistic more, for my past has been weighted on avoidance of large scale repercussions that prop of a system that I truly hate beyond words. I could use a dose of optimism and am fortunate to have some very good friends that are quite optomistic. Reality has been a bummer for the most part in spite of the awesomeness of those that shine through on a day to day basis.

Your life will never be quite the same again, and hopefully that optimism can grow steadily and never be successfully challenged by the system that say it wins under any amount of effort by others to prevent it from literally crushing people. The future is created by creating it. The past is what it was. Now is exactly what is in the here and now. I have been geared toward prevent the worse, helping those who want a better the future. Dana Doo Dah is such a person and I will do what I can to see that you have it. I will quit my intro/orientation to how I operate/think about things and see if there is anything you would like clarified or expounded up at this time. In other words, what is on Dana mind when I tell all the things that I said above ...

Best Wishes,
Loren

Hey Dana,

I have decided there are two possible ways to go on this. I will discuss them with Virginia when we get together on the phone. Would you like to have any input on possible direction or rather wait to see what I decide and propose to do and just address any points on that "draft". If you are busy the second is the better choice. If you have some "spare" time, you may rather spend some time and jump in if you want to give input on the subject. ... just an idea ...

You can call Virginia if you like for I believe she can add you in to the call, if she can't then maybe we can work out a different handling next time. I will be calling about 9:15ish.

Cheers,

Loren

I am EST, and quite frankly, you've handled Nora masterfully. I kind of want to see what you guys come up with. It's truly astounding how they continue to expose themselves. You guys have those instincts and experience that only time and willpower can give. I just got home from work and am going to hop on a freestyle stream before bed because I'm going to drop some more gasoline in the existential "fire" I've started. I don't trust her one bit and I'm so sorry she spoke to you like that. It really is a "tactic", its so similar to what she said to me in the repetition and aggression when she doesn't get her way. Well done. M&V are lucky to have you. The "ex" crew, not so much. :)
